Understanding and Combating Contemporary Antisemitism in the Legal Profession

DESCRIPTION

This training goes in-depth to explain contemporary antisemitism. We will learn about the state of antisemitism in America, why it is a unique form of hatred, how to define antisemitism and recognize its various manifestations using the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance Working Definition of Antisemitism, and what we can do to combat it. Following this presentation prominent members of the Bar, Bench and thought leaders will discuss and provide perspective on reversing normalization of antisemitism and their lived experiences as members of the Jewish community.
